

Chicago Daily

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1895—SIXTEEN PAGES.—WITH ART SUP

ALL TAX, NO WATER.

WEST-SIDERS' PLAINT AGAINST THE WATER DEPARTMENT.

Above First Story Everything Is Dry, but Water Tax Is Collected Regularly — Landlords and Tenants for Once Have a Common Cause—West Side Business-Men's and Property-Owners' Association Takes Action — New Tunnels May Be Built and Old Ones Extended.

West Side residents are beginning to inquire what they are paying water taxes for. The inquiry on the part of those who live in second and third story flats and larger buildings is particularly pressing. In many parts of the West Side it is impossible to get water from the city pipes above the first floors of buildings at any time. In other sections it runs, or rather dribbles, in small quantities. Nowhere in that division of the city is there an ample supply or anything like it. At

BARGAINS IN MILWAUKEE MARRIAGES.

Justices of the Peace Take to Advertising to Get Business.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 21.—[Special.]—"Marriages performed for reasonable fees" is the alluring bait which is held out by two Milwaukee Justices of the Peace to love-sick Chicago couples who will take advantage of the cheap excursions which the whaleback Christopher Columbus will carry from the Western metropolis to this Gretna Green during the coming summer.

This simple but alluring advertisement will not be painted in bold, black letters on a white background and hung in the cabin, where it will discountenance every couple on board for a day's outing and obtrude itself on them in such a vulgar manner as to drive every notion of hymeneal bliss from their minds, but it will be put on the menu card of the big steamer. Everybody must eat, even lovesick Chicago couples.

When the young Chicagoans, male and female, sit down to lunch they will find next to the soup on the card a gentle reminder that it is a duty one owes one's country to get

SCARE IN A

PASSENGERS GIVEN T A STARTLING EX

Last Cable Car Through Street Tunnel Early Selected for a Test of Gripman Lets Go of Then When His Car Bottom He Puts on and Stops the Runawa

When the last Madison went through the Washington at 12:30 o'clock this morning experiment with a new bra result was pleasing to the startling to the passengers, well under way in the tunnel acting under instructions, and away rushed the car at it was near the bottom from them. Tannerman's, but he improve of the coaching re-bridge has have long Duke has al press as a ms and who ay up to the Star heads ust." Com- the paper had to go ic opinion, a the Times declare the dstone will s is correct, erals at the is stated to easure and uarrel.

ike of Cam- re from the the British ny Britons. l some sec- ceat Britain nis re- important a War Office Cambridge, lseley, Lord ut.-Gen. Sir s rumors of he Duke of the office ion advised immense pe-

f Kandahar Dublin as land. Lord reated post ters in the ke of Cam- Dr. Tanner, a commo- by asking the Duke r to make ad loud cries

