Representative Press Opinions.

"The first of four quarto volumes, devoted to the seasons, is a very original adventure in literature and art. It is bound in roughly embossed leather, very delicately tinted. It is superbly printed on fine paper gilt edged over rubric at the top, and with rough sides. . . . A high standard of literary quality is maintained throughout."—Birmingham Post.

"Probably no attempt at renaissance has ever been better equipped than that undertaken 'in the Lawnmarket of Edinburgh by Patrick Geddes and Colleagues.' 'The Book of Spring' is altogether of the sort in which bibliographical treasures are made of."—Black and White.

"The Evergreen is unequalled as an artistic production, . . . it also touches an international note, and holds up the spirits of the best ideals in literature and art."—London.
